

ILLUSTRATOR KATE LEAKE

Award-winning children's author and illustrator

Find out how to book Kate for a visit to your school

School Workshops

Kate Leake is a published children's author and illustrator, based in Stoke-on-Trent. She has worked on more than 20 books, some of which have won or been nominated for awards and even featured on CBeebies!

Kate has visited many schools and is passionate about promoting a love of reading.

Her workshops feature lively story reading, interactive talks and fun drawing and design activities to inspire children.

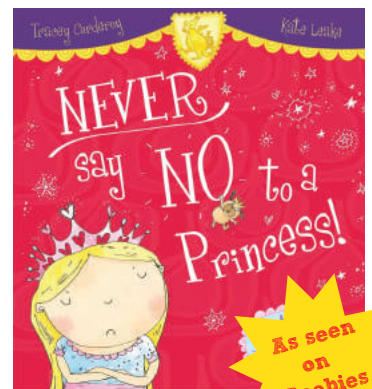

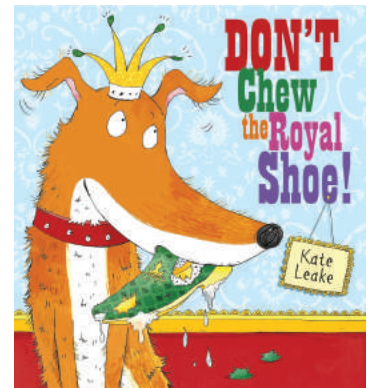

The Best Chip, by Kate Leake
Alison Green Books 2017

NEW!

Chubble, chobble, chomp and chew,
I like chubbling chips
- do YOU?

Tuck into Kate's brand new workshop featuring her latest book...

... A rollicking rhyme that's chock-full of every kind of chip imaginable! Learn all about the true story behind 'The Best Chip' and see how Kate comes up with her ideas. Try your hand at some imagination-boosting illustrating and design your own amazing characters.

As seen on CBeebies

Workshops are available for all of the books featured ▲

Kate is happy to work with all primary school age groups and to do book sales and signings on request. Booking rate for a full school day is £300.

Additional travel expenses may apply, depending on where you are.

If you would be interested in booking Kate for a school visit or finding out more details, you can e-mail Kate directly kate@planetpencil.co.uk

or phone 01782 413600

www.planetpencil.co.uk